BEst short Story

By Maxine Landis

One of the best short stories ever written about apartheid and the problems very timely today.

In todays wars the countries and people also are not ready to rule and lack the training and experience.

Gordimer was a wonderful writer and wrote many stories about her native country.

This is a selection of short stories which are well written

By A Customer

These collection of stories are well put together and are very well written and i am looking forward to reading another book. I would recommend this book, but there are a few down sides.
