Don't waste your money

By ksiezycowy

If you're like me and you find the Medieval languages of Europe fascinating, you might try learning Old High German. Don't bother getting the 'new' book version of Wright's 'Old High German Primer.' The layout of the book have been taken from the text version of what's already been uploaded to places like Google Books and the Internet Archive. This format is terrible.

If you really want to learn Old High German, Wright's Primer is the place to go, but get it free off online. Don't waste money with a poorly produced new version. If they had used the scanned form (like the version at UPenn, or the pdf version) it would be a different story.

Looks very interesting, just beginning to use this book.

I am just beginning to use this book for my genealogy hobby. I am researching my medieval ancestors and the time period I'm working in is the time of the Old High German language. Charlemagne etc spoke Old High German. It is helping to understand documents I run into as well as giving an idea of the way they spoke back then. Very cool. Again, I'm just beginning to use, so I will surely be reviewing it better later.. I am excited to have it.

This item was free or discounted in turn for my unbiased review.

Great Book.

By MAELRUT

Book just what I needed for class. Decent glossary in the back of the book. Grammar categorizations helpful, but not much in the way of explanations. Straightforward text.
