Outstanding book. Wonderfully refreshing and brought me closer to understanding the religious and political intrigue which enveloped Him. Outstanding research done by the author on weaving into his writings the historical facts of how the Jewish temple was organized and was shocked to realize that power and money was behind the perceived threat that Jesus posed to the Jewish sanhedrin (71 Jewish religious and secular leaders). Rejected by His own people.

Loved it so much bought it for a friend.

By ChrisinItaly

I read the Day Christ Died and enjoyed it so much, that I bought this for a friend of mine. I have not read the other half to this book. I love the life of Christ and really enjoy narratives written about it, especially the Bible and secondarily other books.

Experience a passionate account of the birth of Jesus, and gain insight and perspective into the Jewish world and Jesus' Passion

By H. M. Marion

Good historical account of Jesus's Nativity as well as Jewish customs and law, as well as the present official government, with minimal characterization in its sparse narratives.
