THE BIKINI BOOK BY KELLY KILLOREN BENSIMON PDF

On the occasion of its sixtieth anniversary, Assouline presents the authoritative volume on the bikini with iconic images from its history, a study of its symbolism, and a look at the most defining fashions.

A sexy alternative to the one-piece swimming costume, the bikini forever changed the way women relate to their bodies. Smaller than the world's smallest bathing suit, as it was first described by its creator Frenchman Louis Reard, the bikini has become a symbol of female sensuality and liberation.

Here is a four hundred page tribute to the Hollywood pin-ups of the 50s; Bond girls Ursula Andress and Halle Berry rising up from the sea; the beaches of Copacabana and Ipanema, birthplace of the tanga; Brigitte Bardot, topless and poolside in St. Tropez; the itzy bitsy teeny weeny styles of the 60s; beach bodies on spring break; the monokini, tankini, bandini, and v-kini; the strappy and the sporty; the sexy and the outrageous. But whether iconic or ordinary, scandalous or social, every image of the bikini in this luscious volume is about beauty.

This person is an "author"

By Book buyer

I don't know how putting a bunch of stock photos in a book qualifies someone to be an author or writer.

DON'T WASTE YOUR TIME OR MONEY!!!

By C. Malone

I do not understand how this woman got this book published in the first place, but I assume it is her connections with the rich and famous. Her "writing" is just as garbled and nonsense, just as she speaks on the Real Housewives of New York. I am glad that in this case, lots of pictures helped to take your mind off of the "writing". Kelly, you should really take a lot of course in English and English literature. You are really embarrassing yourself. I must admit that I was not surprised, having seen her mixed up insanity on the show, and am glad that I checked it out from the library, and did not waste anything other than my time. DON'T BOTHER!!!

Horrible

By Brittany R. Gibson

This book is horrible. I realize that Kelly Bensimon is getting rave reviews because of her appearance on the 3rd season of Real Housewives of NY. Her writing style, of she is the one writing, is horrible. The book is dry. After watching her antics on RHNY, I now see she cannot help the dryness of the writing it is in her character.

Do not buy.

I am only giving one star because I cannot give a negative star.
