Filmmakers have long recognized the importance of the ending as the logical point to which all action leads. Who can forget Scarlett O'Hara's declaration to get Rhett Butler back in Gone with the Wind because "After all, tomorrow is another day." This compilation contains closing lines—the final words spoken by one character, regardless of length—for over 3,000 films. Arranged by movie (from Aaron Slick to Zorro) each entry includes year of release, studio, closing lines, character, and actor. In many cases, the lines have been verified against original screenplays.

Essential Book

By Guy's Rating

For anyone interested in the cinema, this work is an absolutely essential reference. I am amazed that it took so long for someone to recognize the importance and significance of last lines in movies and also to collect them in one comprehensive volume. Use it as a reference book or read it for pleasure. It works admirably on both levels. A "must have" - an indispensable volume.
